

How To Rock All-White This Summer

As you can tell, I do love wearing all white or all cream. Last week, I got my cream on at the Magic City premiere in Armani shorts, top and shoes with Cresta Bledsoe jewels

I think the monochromatic look is just so chic for summer and with the help of my stylist, I now know how to perfect the look. Here are a few tips...

1. Don't be afraid to mix it up. You can pair different shades of whites and creams, such as pure white, off white, ivory, vintage white and so on. Just be careful to not have more than two shades going at a time otherwise it could look a bit messy. Simpler=sleeker.
2. Texturize! To really make the white monochromatic look pop, wear the same shade but with different textured fabrics, like leather and lace, suede and silk or brocade and cotton.
3. Accessorize! A pop of a bright color like hot pink or tangerine is great for some looks, but not for this summer's all white look. The trend is more toward gold, silver or bronze metallic accessories or nudes. It keeps it fresh!
